The current year value represents the market value of your ty, that is, an estimate of what it would have sold for on the open market on June 30, 2022. If data is insufficient during the base period, assessors see data going back in six-month increments from the five-year period ending June 30, 2022. Sales have been adjusted for inflation and deflation when as been an identifiable trend during the base period, per Colorado Statute. You may file an appeal with the Assessor if you disagree with the cyear value or the property classification determined for your property.
